RE: Master Plan Update – Draft Introduction

As outlined in the project schedule, we have prepared the draft text for the Introduction to the Master Plan Update.

We have not formatted the text into a final layout, as we did not want to spend a lot of time on layout until we had the text in a more final form. However, the Update document will be formatted to be attractive, inviting, and easy to read. The document will also incorporate photos and graphics that illustrate the ideas and information in the text.

Please review the attached text, and be prepared to discuss it at the upcoming Planning Commission meeting. If you have writing style or comments on typographical issues, please provide them via e-mail to selmiger@cwaplan.com

I look forward to discussing this with you at your next meeting.
